

Graffiti Fantasy

Instructor: Josh Reimer & Natasha Wharrad

Date: 8 Tuesdays, January 31 – March 20, 2012

Time: 7:00- 8:30pm Ages: 13 - 16

Location: Steinbach Arts Council, Visual Arts Room

Class fee: $95 Material fee: Supplies Included

Intro to art, useful techniques & skills

Charcoal portraiture, influenced by comic art

Drawing from imagination

Graffiti art

Intro to art teaches skill & techniques needed for later classes: color theory, Perspective, shading & light

Charcoal Portraits inspired by comic book & street art to create more modern and fun portraits.

Drawing from imagination will give you the skills to make your art work more creative.

Graffiti art teaches the difference between graffiti art and vandalism & you will get the chance to make your own piece of vinyl art.

In the 8 weeks we will explore lots of new techniques and work with a number of different mediums and materials.

Cancellations/Refunds – Full refunds are given only when you cancel two weeks prior to start date of class/workshop. If not enough registrants are received for a specific class, there is the possibility that the class will have to be cancelled. If this were to happen the student would receive a full refund.

Membership fees are non-refundable.

One week prior to the class, a reminder phone call will be given to let you know the class is coming up, direction to the centre, and location of the classroom along with dates and time of class.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to call 346-1077.