

Kids Art X-Travaganza

Every child is unique. Art as a medium of self-expression encourages children to speak in a language they create themselves.

In the pottery part of the class, we will learn the different techniques of hand building with clay and then glaze and fire our very own projects. We will learn how to make pinch pots, explore slab techniques and tile making. We will also learn about clay, glazing, and the firing process and witness the exciting results!

Painting part of the workshop, we will learn about shadow & light, perspective, color, negative space, portraiture, caricature and much more! We will use acrylics and watercolor.

Cancellations/Refunds – Full refunds are given only when you cancel two weeks prior to start date of class/workshop. If not enough registrants are received for a specific class, there is the possibility that the class will have to be cancelled. If this were to happen the student would receive a full refund.

Membership fees are non-refundable.

One week prior to the class, a reminder phone call will be given to let you know the class is coming up, direction to the centre, and location of the classroom along with dates and time of class.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to call 346-1077.
